Extremely steep learning curve, but still quite nice. Honestly, just not fun in my opinion.. So i finished the serial show, because we talking about a show and not a game.

Its all about 6 episodes , too short everyone of them , at the 5 ep its getting good !

It took me 5 ep to get used to how to use the " interaction " thing with that show.

If u want to play DONT BUY IT.

If u want to watch a serial show BUY IT( but its too short).

Some momment's its too painfull to watch, so bad acting so bad scenario,but sometimes is so good!!. It has a quite complex story, but the presentation is weak.....

Not really bad, but it could be better!. NEVER EVER AGAIN

8/8M8. Ah were to start its a fairly simple top down Halo shooter very good if you want to pass the time with an intristing story progression only real down thing i dont like about this game is the Assault Ops. They are fine but the ones that♥♥♥♥♥me off is the ones when you have to play the same mission 5 to 6 times just for one and there is 3 Assault Ops every mission. "Such as Destroy 6 Ghost with the Warthog gun" And only around 1 to 2 Ghost spawn so you have to play the mission 3 to 4 times for that one objective.. Don't buy it

I really dislike tier system when you build your base on planets. Same game with open world with free building system would be interesting.

Thoughted was Ascendancy remake but it seem Light of Altair don't offer better only worst. After three missions i stopped game and deleted all files definitively.

Party Hard Tycoon is a game made by the same guys who created original Party Hard. Party Hard is a game about killing people on the parties and it looks like a great idea to expand so called universe with a tycoon game where you try to make great parties. I got a coupon for the game and instantly bought the game. The graphics is the same as in Party Hard game, so for everyone who expects to see new visual style, please do not bother to buy it.

The main goal is to make money by throwing great parties, so the core gameplay is going around managing fans, building party, micromanagement of resources and stuff.

It's fun game as for me, I really like it. Soundtracks are cool but I'd like to have more of them in the game.

Its early access game so I hope to get more content, music and fine tuning in future. I'm glad to support the devs during EA and to give them my feedback.. It's a good game. Not sure why everyone is saying it's bad, but picking up the game + expansion from a bundle for <$5 is totally worth.. the tutorials don't even work what a pos looks good plays awful. A taste of music videos from the future.... This game is crap. Yes, the setting is very atmospheric, nicely done. But first person platforming is awful. And the game's checkpoints spawn you off of the mobile platforms causing you to instantly die. Plus they state in a note that they're glad they decided to not have characters or a plot... What? I do not get why this has such good reviews.. Short version - the devs clearly spent a lot of time making this game and just about no time testing it, which caused the players a lot of grief which the devs responded by saying "lol".

This game is not really worth it. While close, a bit of really mean-spirited trolling by the developer just sort of wrecks things.

This is a game about running around shooting things, like Castlevania, but in ~5 minute missions and with guns and no levels. So basically not a whole lot like Castlevania at all. That's about as close as I can come, though. It is side-scrolling, and your character has this pretty cool ability to slow time and teleport.

You unlock crafting materials to make new guns (or don't, see below), and can get gems to socket into armor you find. The armor sets are mostly equal, the real customization is in the gems you socket. Unfortunately, there are just a handful (eight? ten?) types of gems, and as you go through the game you don't unlock new types, just the same thing but with bigger numbers.

The real star of the show are the guns. They are many and varied - rifles, grenade launchers, flamethrowers, chainsaws, homing missile launchers... Pretty cool overall. The only downside is that several enemies are outright immune to certain categories of weapons (ice, fire, lightning, with each monster immune to their own type). This means that the most practical choice in nearly every situation is a boring old rifle, and using other weapons is a bit of fun but extremely situational and even then is noticeably less effective. Still, some variety is nice.

Just considering what I've already written, I would probably recommend this game. There's a catch, though - the dev seems to just be trolling completionists. There are levels where, by all accounts, many thorough searches simply do not discover treasure chests that the developer says are there. I am not the only one to have as much trouble finding these. The developer has hinted that some really important crafting materials are hidden in these chests. Alright, fine, so they're really hard to get but you can find them? No, apparently not. If you check the global achievements you will find that 0.0% of players have actually unlocked all the weapons, which require the aforementioned materials. A joke from the dev, apparently, with glitched out chests or missing chests or materials requiring actions so bizarre that literally nobody has found them. Several hours wasted, which probably accounts for a quarter or so of my total time in this game.
