From 1970 to 1991, the Triple A International League made the city of Buffalo its home, as the franchise was renamed that. The Triple A picked the city in 1991, when Buffalo gave up the rights. Poughkeepsie Mayor and Hudson Valley Economic Development Council board member Bob Knapp told WKBW-TV's George Noory that the city is proud of its baseball history. "It's a baseball fan's dream to host the All-Star Game," he said. "We always think this is an appropriate place for the All-Star Game. And with the right kind of cooperation, we can do it." Buffalo, which was awarded the game in 1994, is presently looking to split the playoff games with the Yankees. The regular season for the Triple A in Buffalo starts on May 8, and the team's home opener is May 10. Maybe it's time to start saving that ammo for real. The U.S. Army is so short-handed for soldiers to go into battle that only one soldier in 10 will see actual combat. The rest of the troops will spend months at a time in the field with minimal rest 1cdb3666d
